1. Write a brief summary of the Planet Earth “Mountains” video. Be sure to highlight key concept explained and use specific examples from the video.
2. What do you feel are some challenges facing animal life in higher elevations in the coming years? Name two challenges revealed in the film.
3. In the bigger picture of things, why is animal life and all animals so important to the complex system of the biosphere?
4. What are your feelings about animal protection? Where on the spectrum of tree hugger (use no animal products/by products) to ragging developer (has no care for nature or ramifications of his actions) do you fall? Why?
